

Middle Schoolers, Mind Your Manners!

Pittsburgh metro area middle schoolers are encouraged to put on their “Sunday best” to attend the second annual AAUW Mind Your Manners etiquette dinner to be held on Sunday, January 29, 2012 from 5-8 pm at the Fox Chapel Golf Club.

The dinner is sponsored by the Fox Chapel Area branch of AAUW (American Association of University Women) as a community service and fundraiser to support the branch’s local Education fund. The cost is only $95 which includes a formal reception, basic dining etiquette rules taught during a 4-course dinner, introductions, and a receiving line. Tables of young people are hosted during dinner by experienced AAUW ladies who set a good example, gently guide polite conversation and reinforce the lessons taught by Janice Barrington, co-founder of the Fox Chapel Cotillion program. A booklet summarizing the lessons taught is sent home with the students.

This etiquette dinner offers skills that will last a lifetime, and makes a great stocking stuffer for children and grandchildren. For more information and/or to make reservations to attend please contact janicebarrington@comcast.net or call 412-767-6599.
